THE MINISTER OF MICRO, SMALL AND MEDIUM ENTERPRISES (SHRI MAHAVIR PRASAD): (a) to (c) Yes, Sir. The details and expected benefits of the new schemes under consideration In Agro and Rural Industries Sector are given in the enclosed Statement

Statement

Details and expected benefit of the new schemes under consideration in Agro and Rural Industries section

1. Workshed Scheme for Khadi Weavers and Artisans: This is a new scheme on the lines of one under implementation in the Ministry of Textiles for benefit of handloom weavers.

2. Scheme for enhancement of productivity and competitiveness of Khadi Industry and Artisans: This aims to provide financial assistance to 200 of the 'A plus', 'A', 'B', 'C and 'D' category Khadi institutions. 25% of the institutions managed by SC/ST beneficiaries/artisans are planned to be assisted under the scheme and these SC/ST institutions are proposed to be fully funded under the scheme. The scheme will be operated in a Public Private Partnership mode to increase value addition to Khadi products, readymade garments, muslin khadi, setting up of common facility centre, need based dyeing and printing facilities besides ensuring better wages to artisans along with skill upgradation.

3. Package for developing. infrastructure of Khadi institutions including nursing fund for weak institutions: This scheme envisages replacement, of looms and charkhas for increasing production of khadi and to expand employment base. The scheme attempts to revive weak institutions too.

4. Restructuring of Rural Employment Generation Programme: This scheme is going to be a comprehensive proposal which seeks to merge the major employment generation schemes viz. Pradhan Mantri Rozgar Yojana and Rural Employment Generation Programme.

5. Rejuvenation, modernisation and technology upgradation for coir Industry:
The Scheme has two components. First is the rejuvenation and modernisation of coir sector. Increasing the utilisation of husk, better conversion rate of husk into coir products and generation of estimated 1,76,250 (Women 1,41,000 + Men 35,250) additional employment opportunities during XI Five Year Plan are some of the targets.

The second part is to promote 6 mega clusters, one each in Kerala, Tamil Nadu, Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka, Orissa and North Eastern Region.

Schemes in Goa
